

WATER-BASED TOURISM

JOB TITLE

Environmental Officer in Cruise Ship

JOB DESCRIPTION

Environmental officers conduct environmental assessments, ensure ship's compliance with environmental legislation and assist crew to understand environmentally sustainable practices, such as recycling, waste handling and pollution prevention. An Environmental Officer reports directly to the Captain.

KNOWLEDGE AREAS

- Environmental legislation
- Environmental policy
- Use of English

SOFT SKILLS

- Systemic thinking
- Problem-framing
- Prioritising
- Strategic thinking
- Promoting nature
- Empathy
- Calling for collective action
- Management of change
- Providing guidance to a team
- Exercising control
- Risk management

HARD SKILLS

- Analyse environmental data
- Assess environmental impact
- Develop environmental strategy
- Implement environmental action plan
- Ensure compliance with environmental legislation
- Provide training in sustainable tourism development and management
- Manage government policy implementation
- Report on environmental issues
- Measure pollution
- Develop environmental policy
- Monitor environmental parameters
- Investigate pollution

COMMENTS

The ESCO portal serves as the main reference point for filling in the current table. However, additional research findings might have been incorporated to ensure that the provided input aligns with the specific requirements of the tourism sector. To see if and how this occupation is regulated in EU Member States, EEA countries or Switzerland please consult the ESCO occupations pillar in the following link: <https://esco.ec.europa.eu/en/classification/occupation>